MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF EAST CLEVELAND DEFENDANTS’ MOTION FOR A RULE 60(d) HEARING

On February 10, 1995, Clifton Hudson (19-years old) was shot five times in the back as he tried to escape an ambush

Plaintiffs Derrick Wheatt, Eugene Johnson and Laurese Glover were identified by three eyewitnesses as suspects, arrested, charged and convicted of the murder of Clifton Hudson. On January 18, 1996 Plaintiff Laurese Glover was sentenced to 15 years to life. Plaintiffs Derek Wheatt and Eugene Johnson were sentenced to 18 years to life. See Doc. # 1 at ¶ 128.

Premised primarily upon the “recantation” of Tamika Harris, the state’s primary witness, on December 5, 2014, the East Cleveland Three filed a Motion for New Trial seeking relief under Crim.R. 33(A) and Brady v. Maryland pursuant to the theory of newly discovered evidence, technological advancements in gunshot residue testing; and allegations that prior to, during and after the trial, the City Defendants withheld exculpatory evidence.

On March 26, 2015 Cuyahoga County Judge Nancy Margaret Russo in Case No.: CR-95-324431-B granted the Motion for a New Trial which was affirmed by the Eighth District Court of Appeals on May 5, 2016. Thereafter, on June 27, 2016 the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor’s Office filed its Motion to Dismiss Without Prejudice. Significantly, at no time during any post-trial procedures, including the new trial proceedings were the City Defendants called upon as witnesses.

The East Cleveland Three brought an eleven-count Complaint alleging that the City Defendants deprived them of their constitutional rights.

On November 15, 2018, a Jury entered a verdict against the late Michael Perry in the amount of $11.5 Million and Vincent Johnston in the amount of $4.5 Million. The Court had also dismissed without prejudice the indemnification claim, as that claim was not yet ripe. See Doc. # 124 at p. 38.

However, on or about December 19, 2019, James Avery, a purported investigator for Rosemary Johnson, mother of Plaintiff Eugene Johnson, appeared in the East Cleveland Law Offices and complained that he had not been paid the $25,000 he had been promised to effectuate the recantation of key Plaintiff Witness, Tameka Harris.

Rather than merely submit an Affidavit to verify such fraud on the Court, the East Cleveland Defendants respectfully request that this Honourable Court set a hearing on Mr. Avery's averments.

Respectfully submitted,
